About Hermanus

Holiday Houses-SA has a selection of luxurious self-catering houses situated in Hermanus, in the Overberg region of the Western Cape on the famous 'South Coast Whale Route'. Hermanus is known as one of the best land-based whale watching sites in the world (June -November) and has lots to offer the holidaymaker besides whale watching: Enjoy breathtaking scenery ranging from walks on long sandy beaches to mountain hikes surrounded by 'fynbos' vegetation.

The Hemel-en-Aarde Valley (Heaven and Earth) has an interesting 'wine meander' where one can taste excellent local wines at the various vineyards.

And what would traveling be without sampling the local cuisine? Enjoy the diverse selection of restaurants and bars in Hermanus and the surrounding region.

For the adventure lover there is much on offer: para-sailing, sand-boarding, shark-cage diving, water sports, quad biking and much more. For those in search of tranquility and relaxation, Hermanus is also the ideal spot : Take a stroll around the village with its quaint shops, craft market and museums or to the cliff paths to view a whale breaching only meters away!

Hermanus is centrally located as a base for visiting many interesting towns in this area: From Greyton with its lovely old houses, beautiful gardens and great restaurants to Cape Agulhas, the southern most tip of Africa, where the Indian and the Atlantic Ocean meet, as well as the famous Stellenbosch and Franschoek winelands, with many more towns and villages in between.Click here for Statistics of H.H.S.A
